In addition to your usual professional and respectful conduct, there are a couple of specific parade rules to remind you of:

- 1) There will be no throwing of candy, beads, souvenirs, or mementos, etc of any sort from moving vehicles to the parade viewers along the line of march.
- 2) Any organization distributing literature, pamphlets or paperwork of any kind will provide manpower at the end of the parade to clean up the parade route.
- 3) Deliberate halting or interference with the continuous movement of the parade by performing drills, dances, routines, electioneering, etc or the like is strictly forbidden. Any group, person or persons halting the parade by such conduct will be immediately removed from the line of march and removed from the invitation list.
- 4) All vehicles must be driven in a safe manor without excessive noise or unsafe actions.

We acknowledge the above rules and will abide by these rules at all times and will follow the verbal orders of the parade committee at all times. We understand that failure to comply with the rules and verbal orders of the committee may result in our expulsion from the parade at any time.
